In addition to the above dances, a few preschool classes will also perform Christmas dances. If your child is learning a Christmas dance, please plan on attending. We are also performing at Six Flags over Texas during Holiday in the Park; date and time to be announced. If your child has danced at any of the above performances, they can dance at Six Flags. Tickets for parents and children are about $16.

Purple leotards are here now! Your child has the option of wearing purple or black leotards to class. In addition, pink tights and ballet shoes must be worn to ballet and hair must be in a bun. Black ballet skirts may also be worn.

The studio will be closed from Wednesday, November 25 thru Saturday, November 28 for Thanksgiving.

It's time to start Christmas wish lists and we've got wish list cards for your dancer. Stop by the desk and pick one up. Your child may select items/sizes from The Dance Company stock. We'll keep the cards on file and friends and family members can come up and shop.

CONGRATULATIONS TO: Katie Cox was selected to play the lead in Casa Manana's production of "Santa Claus is Coming to Town." Mickayla Carr was selected to dance in a solo at her school's talent show. Kassie Wegner had two of her choreography pieces chosen to be staged at a national high school dance competition in Florida. If you are interested in seeing the dances, they will be performed December 10 and 11 at Fort Worth Fine Arts Academy. Congratulations to all of these talented Dance Company students!

Beginning in January, The Dance Company will offer a ballet choreography class for those interested in participating in upcoming performances. Classes will be from 5-6 p.m. on Thursday. Stop by the desk to sign up.

Tuition is due at the time of your child's first class every month. A $10 late fee will be charged after the seventh of the month.
